*Te Whare Tohu o
Te Hau Whakaora*

Karakia Poka, nā Mark Kopua

I take up my tool that seeks out wellbeing
Wellbeing that is in all upper, lower, outer, inner spaces
Whose is this tool? It belongs to Rongo-the-ancient
Who battles against all the spiritual and physical ailments that attack mankind
Bind and weave this patient lying here in the thread of healing, the ancient thread of Rongomatāne
That provides terrestrial, celestial and spiritual cares to all that live here
We bind to that tool, we hold that tool and raise it up high
Proceed and move forward
Bind it as one, united!
