

PROGRAM

Friday 29 April

AWST: 7–8.30am	Optional workshop
ACST: 8.30–10am	FPM01 Management of acute behavioural disturbance, Dr Stephanie Oak.
AEST: 9–10.30am	Note: places are limited.
NZST: 11–12.30pm

Session one – Update on headache and facial pain

Chair: Dr Pavla Walsh

AWST: 8.45–10.30am
ACST: 10.15–12pm
AEST: 10.45–12.30pm
NZST: 12.45–2.30pm

Welcome

Migraine – Professor Claudia Sommer

Botulinum Neurotoxin (Botox) to treat Orofacial Pain: What is the Evidence? – Dr Robert Delcanho

The enigma of burning – Associate Professor Ramesh Balasubramaniam

Live Q&A and panel discussion

AWST: 10.30–11am
ACST: 12–12.30pm
AEST: 12.30–1pm
NZST: 2.30–3pm

Break

Session two – Rehabilitation medicine and pain

Chair: Dr Chui Chong

AWST: 11–12.30pm
ACST: 12.30–2pm
AEST: 1–2.30pm
NZST: 3–4.30pm

Pain following spinal cord injury – Professor James Middleton

Enthesopathies and tendinopathies – Professor Steven Faux

Post burns recovery – Professor Fiona Wood

Live Q&A and panel discussion

AWST: 12.30–1.30pm
ACST: 2–3pm
AEST: 2.30–3.30pm
NZST: 4.30–5.30pm

Break

Session three – Education and welfare

AWST: 1.30–3pm

Chair: Dr Stephanie Davies

ACST: 3–4.30pm

Gender in pain medicine – Dr Lindy Roberts

AEST: 3.30–5pm

Mentoring – Dr Nicole Liesis

NZST: 5.30–7pm

Giving feedback – Professor Liz Molloy

Live Q&A and panel discussion

AWST: 3–3.30pm

Break

ACST: 4.30–5pm

AEST: 5–5.30pm

NZST: 7–7.30pm

Session four – Legacy patients and the opioid crisis

AWST: 3.30–5pm

Chair: Dr Martine O'Neill

ACST: 5–6.30pm

A background on legacy patients – Professor Bart Morlion

AEST: 5.30–7pm

Opioids after 20 years: An addiction medicine perspective – Professor Moira Sim and Dr Richard O'Regan

NZST: 7.30–9pm

Live Q&A and panel discussion

Closing comments