

Anaesthetics Provisional Fellow

Fixed Term - Full Time

(86 hrs per fortnight) from February 2025

Grampians Health is a significant trials site for the ANZCA Clinical Trials Network, with current involvement in TRIGs, ROCKET and LOLIPOP trials. Medical students from the University of Melbourne (Rural Clinical School) and Deakin Clinical School attend and undertake their anaesthetic training in the department. A long established culture of audit exists, with M&M meetings and Complex Case reviews held every second week.

Your Provisional Fellow year – why Ballarat?

- Join a team of 36 consultant anaesthetists, 10 anaesthetic registrars and 3 HMOs.
- The six main theatres and 2 Procedure Rooms undertake nearly 10,000 cases per year.
- The department supports an Obstetric Service of 1800 deliveries per annum, as well as a 2 room Cardiac Intervention Suite.
- Two specialist pain physicians lead our Acute Pain Service and conduct clinics for persistent patients, as well as perform interventional pain procedures.
- All surgery specialties are catered for with the exception of cardiac surgery and neurosurgery.
- Opportunities exist to gain further experience in paediatric, obstetric, thoracic and vascular anaesthesia prior to commencing specialist practice.
- Excellent opportunities to use your non-clinical time for research, teaching and other professional development activities.

About Grampians Health

Grampians Health provides healthcare to a large region at our campuses based in Ballarat, Dimboola, Edenhope, Horsham and Stawell.

Our mission is to deliver sustainable healthcare tailored to evolving community and workforce needs. We strive to enhance services and careers, providing quality healthcare to rural and regional communities. Joining Grampians Health means being part of a diverse team, with a variety of career opportunities in acute, maternity, mental health, allied health, aged care and support services.

Grampians Health comprises the Base Hospital (221 acute beds), Queen Elizabeth Centre (Sub Acute Care 70 beds) and Psychiatric Services (67 beds). New short stay unit and modern emergency, critical care, ambulatory, aged care and rehabilitation facilities uniquely integrate in-patient, ambulatory, community and home based services. Grampians Health is a major training site for the University of Melbourne and Deakin Rural Clinical Schools. Senior staff are strongly committed to teaching and the professional development of Interns, HMOs and Registrars.
