

DIVING DEEP

2025 FPM SYMPOSIUM

Friday 2 May

Program

| Optional workshop |   |  |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 7-8.30am          | FPMS01 Management of acute severe behavioural disturbance (ASBD)Places are limited.  | Facilitators: Dr Helen Newman and Dr Kiran Sharma                                |
| From 8am          | Registration   |  |
| 8.45-10.30am      | Session one: Future proof Chair: Dr Anju Tessa James                                 |  |
|                   | Welcome from the FPM Symposium convenors and FPM dean   | Dr Hannah Bennett, Dr Anju Tessa James and Dr Dilip Kapur                        |
|                   | How can the patient perspective change the future of pain management  | Ms Kate Gill   |
|                   | Virtual reality: The future of pain management  | Dr Daniel Harvie   |
|                   | Artificial intelligence in pain management – Consumer perceptions and clinical applications   | Dr Nicole Andrews  |
|                   | Live panel discussion and Q&A   |  |
| 10.30-11am        | Morning tea  |  |
| 11am-12.30pm      | Session two: Neuropathic pain Chair: Dr Aman Ahuja                                   |  |
|                   | Role of non-invasive brain neuromodulation in neuropathic pain  | Professor Nadine Attal   |
|                   | LiCPain: Advances in neuropathic cancer pain management – Exploring ongoing clinical trials and emerging therapies                    | Dr Jessica Lee   |
|                   | Neuropathic pain – The neuroimmune connection   | Associate Professor Gila Moalem-Taylor   |
|                   | Live panel discussion and Q&A   |  |
| 12.30-1.30pm      | Lunch  |  |
| 1.30-3pm          | Session three: A global and cultural approach to pain Chair: Dr Hannah Bennett       |  |
|                   | A global approach to ensuring paediatric pain care  | Professor G Allen Finley   |
|                   | From Hui to Do-ey: An infusion of culture into persistent pain management   | Dr Leinani Aiono-Le Tagaloo, Dr Sheela Perumal, Jessee Fia'ali'i and Sonali Dutt |
|                   | Staying moving, staying strong: Pain management resources for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples                           | Ms Brooke Conley, Ms Jane Linton and Dr Ivan Lin                                 |
|                   | Live panel discussion and Q&A   |  |
| 3-3.30pm          | Afternoon tea  |  |
| 3.30-4.50pm       | Session four: Visceral pain Chair: Dr Helen Newman                                   |  |
|                   | The interplay between functional gut disorders and pain   | Dr Trina Kellar  |
|                   | Intrauterine neuroimmune modulation to reduce pelvic pain in women: First in human trial  | Associate Professor Susan Evans  |
|                   | The role and opportunities for compounding pharmacy in visceral and pelvic pain   | Tahnee Simpson   |
|                   | Live panel discussion and Q&A   |  |
| 4.50-5pm          | Closing comments from the FPM Symposium convenors Dr Hannah Bennett and Dr Anju Tessa James |  |
| 7-10pm            | FPM Symposium reception at Ollie's Italian  |  |

*Times are listed in AEST

#FPM25CNS